Artsyl Technologies, Inc. to Sponsor Evolution 2017, Altec's Annual Conference for DocLink Customers and Partners

Artsyl Technologies, Inc. will demonstrate Artsyl's intelligent capture platform docAlpha and InvoiceAction application for accounts payable at Evolution 2017 from March 20th-23rd, 2017 in Newport Beach, CA.

ONTARIO, CANADA (March 20, 2017) — Artsyl Technologies, Inc.[™], a leading global provider of smart process technology for data capture and document workflow processing, announced today its sponsorship of Evolution 2017, Altec's annual DocLink customer conference. The event will take place from March 20th-23rd, 2017 in Newport Beach, CA at the Newport Beach Marriott Resort and Spa.

DocLink document management is a powerful solution that allows organizations to transform outdated business practices to increase efficiency in the workplace. Streamlining document routing and automating workflows supports corporate compliance while providing secure and easy access to all documents. Evolution 2017 will unite DocLink users and partners for four invaluable days of learning and networking. With a schedule boasting a convenient Expo center, technical help at DocLink Interact and 40+ expert-led sessions on separate, focused tracks, the event aims to help businesses progress with actionable takeaways.

Channel partners will have the opportunity to take advantage of tracks designed specifically to equip resellers with the best tools and strategies to deliver first class solutions, such as DocLink and docAlpha, to their clients. DocLink users will learn how to expand and optimize their systems, explore creative ideas on new use cases, hear best practices from other DocLink users, discover the complementary applications of ISVs such as Artsyl Technologies, Inc and be inspired to evolve their businesses as DocLink grows with them.

Artsyl Technologies, Inc will showcase Artsyl's docAlpha intelligent capture platform that reduces manual document handling, eliminates data entry, increases data accuracy, accelerates workflows and ensures standards compliance at Evolution 2017. In addition to exhibiting each day in the Expo center, Artsyl will present a breakout session on Wednesday, March 22 from 11am – 12pm. titled Automation and Operational Excellence Beyond Accounts Payable.

During the session, Jeff Moore, Chief Sales Officer of Artsyl Technologies will overview Operational challenges for data- and document-dependent processes, Business Process Automation as a strategic, competitive advantage and risks and ROI of AP Automation.

"Last year's inaugural Evolution conference was a giant success, providing our customer and partners with important information about our flagship DocLink solution," stated Don Howren, President and COO at Altec. We are delighted to once again be able to offer our customers and partners the information and support vital to grow business through DocLink and complementary applications such as Artsyl's docAlpha smart process platform"
